We operate a secure online platform that utilizes process and technology to facilitate and lower your SEC filing compliance costs, by having all your professionals work from one web-based document, beginning to end. Our team of highly trained professionals include legal, audit, accounting, edgar and XBRL service providers. This Xpress Filings Service is geared for micro-cap public companies looking to make their SEC filing process more efficient and cost effective. Our service platform integrates the work of all service providers by having them all work from one filing document, which significantly reduces their time spent and your compliance costs. Xpress Filings provides better service and insures timely filings at a reduced cost. A reputable Edgar/XBRL agent has joined our service platform in order to meet the increased demand by micro-cap companies for better service at lower SEC compliance costs. All small public companies can benefit from our new Xpress Filing Service.
